

Konnichiwa! My name is Shinnosuke Taguchi and I became a Student Ambassador in my sophomore year here at the Institute for the Liberal Arts (ILA) in Doshisha University. I personally love the wide range of classes offered, which definitely satisfy my academic interests. The compact yet diverse student body also helped set the perfect work environment. I originally chose the ILA because it was located in the beautiful city of Kyoto but also because the classes were small enough to conduct discussion based classes with more student-to-student and student-to-professor interaction. I think that you will find it easy to make friends here in the ILA as well as take part in different activities including sports and student clubs. I hope to see you around on campus!

I am very interested in the Academic fields of Sociocultural Anthropology as well as Philosophy so if anyone is interested in either I would love to sit down and chat about the subjects! I am a dedicated practitioner of Brazilian Jiu-Jitsu but also enjoy playing soccer and exercising in general. I also do voluntary work to fulfill my passions of positively impacting the communities around me.

In the future, I would like to continue my studies in the field of Sociocultural Anthropology while further improving my trilingual ability in English, Japanese, and Arabic. I would also like to be able to put the knowledge and experience I gained from my studies to impact others through humanitarian organizations, non-governmental or inter-governmental organizations.
